So, How Near the End Are We?

I hear about it virtually everywhere I go; I'm often stopped and asked about it, as well. In light of the recent events in Israel, many are wondering about end-time events and how near the end we might be. Do I wonder about it? Sure, I do. Do I pray about it—yes, I do. However, I'm going to land somewhere between the guys on YouTube or TikTok that are “pinpointing” the days and those on the other (far) side who don't believe any of these events will have a literal fulfillment.

If I still have you reading, let me start out by expressing here what I often express in the pulpits across this association: PLEASE Don't get your theology on social media! I hear some people there who act as if they have it all figured out and have unlocked millennia-old mysteries that have baffled millions. Not so. I think my studies in the Scriptures over the years have settled a lot of things for me, but guys, in all honesty, the older I get and the more I study the more questions I have! The questions I speak of are not critical to Who God is or of salvation, just more about how and when God will bring all this to its appointed climax and usher in the Kingdom of our LORD.

Now, let me be up front. The recent attack on Israel might very well be setting the stage for end-time events. What makes me say that? The Lord speaking through Ezekiel in Chapter 38 speaks of Gog and Magog and those nations with them coming against Israel. It's not definitive, but many scholars find connections between the names of the nations there listed and nations of today. For instance, the prince of Rosh sounds amazingly like Russia (and the attack will be from the North where Russia lies). “Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya are with them” (v. 5); no doubt modern Iran is an extension of ancient Persia, and the other two represent the Arab nations of North Africa. It is quite striking how Mr. Putin has allied himself with the Arab world. You can also look further at Zechariah 12-14: “all who would heave it [Jerusalem] away will surely be cut in pieces, though all nations of the earth are gathered against it,” (12:3).

The above are prophecies that clearly indicate an attack on Israel by the “nations of the earth.” “How could such a thing happen?” many have asked. Even in our own country, once so allied with Israel, we have protesters supporting Hamas and even Neo-Nazis screaming antisemitism. Our grandfathers who fought in WWII would be appalled, but that is the current state of our woefully ignorant and volatile culture. Looking objectively at the current news, it is not hard to imagine such a situation.

I think one of the key things we struggle to unravel about prophecy is, “is this passage talking about the same thing as that passage or is that a different event?”; let me give you an example: in Jesus' Great Eschatological Discourse in Mt. 24-25, our Lord tells us of end-time events. One of those is how He will judge the nations. Then, in Rev. 20, we have the Great White Throne Judgment. If you read both passages carefully, it becomes clear Jesus speaks generally and Rev. 20 elaborates what Jesus has laid out.

I will confess that it looks to me the events described are aligning with tremendous precision. But, let me remind you of two things our Lord speaks in these very passages: 1.) He tells us no man knows the day or hour (Mt. 24:16)—so don't listen to those who claim to know so much.; 2.) In the middle of His Great Discourse, Jesus gives the parable of the wise and foolish virgins (25: 1-13). You'll recall what separated the two groups was the wise had oil for their lamps while the foolish did not. Many scholars believe the reference to oil is symbolic of the Holy Spirit; in other words, some had made preparation for the bridegroom's coming, and some hadn't. Some have the Spirit & new birth and some do not. So? So, our Lord is speaking to us of a life of balance: Be alert—be ready, but don't speculate about things beyond your understanding and certainty. The solid Christian is to operate somewhere between running for the hills to await the 2nd coming and dismissing it all to the point where we'll be embarrassed at our Lord's appearing: “Watch therefore, for you do not know what hour your Lord is coming,” (Mt. 24:42).

There are at least two things we can be certain of: 1.) Whatever we are going to do for the Lord—we must be about it now—we don't have any promise we will be here tomorrow. 2.) Our Lord will fulfill His Word because He is a God of His Word—it might be in the way we expect or different than we've imagined, but He will bring it to pass as He sees fit and has promised. Our job is to be ready!

Appalachian Mountain Ministry Newsletter

For November 2023

November: Exciting, Jubilant, and Successful: This month we delivered two loads to Buckhorn, Ky., Jellico TN., Knoxville, TN., and Alabama to the Spanish mission. All backpacks will have been delivered to the Appalachian Mountains by the time you receive this letter. Praise the Lord for all the volunteers who contributed money, time, and prayer. Many of the bags have already been distributed to the children. God is Good and He is Good All the Time. With Faith in Him all things are possible. If you weren't a part of this mission project, you surely will want to plan to be a part of it next year.

Help Still Needed to Load Furniture

We have been fortunate to have much needed help in loading the furniture we are taking up to the mountains. The men's ministry at Second Baptist has committed to helping us load furniture on the second Saturday of each month. That is a true blessing. I believe if you could speak with them, they would confirm the comradery that takes place among all the men and boys during the loading. We have another church that is going to help us on the fourth Saturday. That leaves only two Saturdays to go. It only takes about 2.5 hours to load a truck. If you would like to join this team of loaders, please contact me at (478) 396-9316. Smaller churches might want to join together to load on a Saturday and draw us more together. If you have any questions about the Appalachian Mountain Ministry please don't hesitate to ask.

MINISTRY MOMENTS

Gal 5:13 "...
but serve one another through love."

Our local Disaster Relief team (1F) was a vital part of helping serve all the security detail at Mrs. Rosalynn Carter's visitation and funeral service. We are proud of our team led by Mike Horton. This gesture was a great testimony and service to the Carter family and demonstrated the love of Christ.

REHOBOTH LIFE CARE MINISTRIES VOLUNTEER DENTAL CLINIC

From the Director's Desk:

As Thanksgiving passes and we look ahead to Christmas, I can only say "What an amazing God we serve". God has truly blessed Rehoboth this year. He continues to show up and show out. We are so blessed to be able to do what we for those in need in our community. We say Thank you to so many who made it possible this year as a Volunteer and we say "Thank you" to those who gave. Wishing you and your family a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New year.

Remember, your donation is tax deductible.

Teresa Woodberry

Just a little gesture of thanks for those who Volunteered this year!

THANK YOU!!
